Loud against the right in Ravensburg

The Bundestag elections are approaching, the AfD is gaining strength and is fishing on all fringes with topics such as remigration (deportation) and a racist, misanthropic and nationalist world view.

The shift to the right is also affecting other parties, and they too are moving to the right. Nevertheless, the AfD and its followers want to divide us, the democratic civil society!

But not with us. There are more of us, and we are taking to the streets.

One year after the demonstrations of millions throughout Germany and 9,000 in Ravensburg alone, we must once again, this time even more urgently, set an example!

We call on everyone: Come to the "Loud against the right" demonstration!

 Date: Saturday, 25.01.2025

 Time: 3:00 pm

 Place: In front of Ravensburg train station

Let us show:

There are more of us.

Never again is now, remigration = deportation.

We stand for democracy, diversity and human rights, against hatred and racism.

Why is this important?

The AfD has been in the Bundestag for seven years, with key points: fewer rights for people who are not German, who are poor, who are female or "disabled".

Remigration? No thanks!

In the secret meeting in Potsdam, which became known in January 2024, high-ranking right-wing extremists and major industrialists met with the AfD and other political actors. They talked about large-scale deportation plans, so-called "remigration". These plans would affect several million people in Germany. The plan: mass deportations of "foreigners" and supporters to Madagascar, for example. The AfD also regularly expresses the idea of remigration, and according to research, it has become deeply rooted in the party.
